

70th ALL INDIA
COMMERCE
CONFERENCE
of
ICA
INDIAN
COMMERCE
ASSOCIATION
12-14 OCTOBER 2017

THE IIS UNIVERSITY
deemed to be a university under section 3 of UGC Act, 1956
JAIPUR

Dinlipi

A lookback

Daily News Letter ICA Conference 2017

Valedictory Session

"Education Institutions require Constructive Approach"- Prof. M.M. Salunkhe

Higher Education is going through drastic changes. There is a need for constructive approach as various types of universities are coming up and hence there is a strong competition, said Prof. M.M. Salunkhe, Vice-Chancellor, Bhartiya Vidyapeeth Deemed University, Pune, Maharashtra, at the Valedictory Ceremony of 70th All India Commerce Conference of ICA, Jaipur where he was present as a chief guest.

On the occasion, Prof. Subhash Garg, Conference Secretary, AICC, welcomed all the dignitaries, delegates and ICA members. Dr. Balwinder Singh, Secretary, ICA, presented the ICA report. Dr

Roopam Kothari, Asso. Prof., IISU, Jaipur, also presented the conference report.

Prof. Arvind Kumar, Immediate Past President, ICA, congratulated everybody for the success of the three day National Conference.

Dr. Ashok Gupta, Vice Chancellor, IISU, Jaipur, in his closing remarks said that this conference was an outstanding example through which our minds have been assailed by a torrent of ideas, information, statistics, interpretations and visions, and it will probably be a day or two before we can sift through them all and consolidate our own personal perspectives.

In the end, Prof. M. Maniraju, Joint Secretary, ICA, and Dr. Raakhi Gupta organizing Secretary, AICC, offered the formal Vote of Thanks, bringing the ideas and experiences of the conference to a close. Prof. M. K Sharma, Advisor, AICC and Prof. Purushotham Rao, Returning Officer were also present on the dais.

Kritika Sharma, Vishakha Sharma

The IIS University, Jaipur Signs MOUs

The IIS University, Jaipur signed two Memorandums of understanding on Saturday.

The first MOU has been signed with the Techno India University (TIU), West Bengal, India and second one, with Global Management And Services Private Limited (GMANDS) Brajanathchak, Haldia, Purba Medinipur, West Bengal. The MOUs aim at reaching a mutual understanding towards the promotion of scholars and students, faculty and staff exchange and development, academic, information facilities and infrastructure sharing, development of sports, culture and values.

Prof. Shubhro M. Gomes & Dr. Ashok Gupta

Sukanya Singh Jadon

ORGANIZED BY
Faculty of Commerce and Management
THE IIS UNIVERSITY
SPE, Gandak Marg, Manasagar, Jaipur-302 020 www.70thica2017@iisuniv.ac.in / www.iisuniv.ac.in ICA website: www.icaindia.info
Email: 70thica2017@iisuniv.ac.in

Moments.....

Indelible Memories.....

Life is a journey of experiences that enrich us every day.

On the last day of the conference all the delegates prepared to leave Jaipur having collected a lot of memorable moments. Many of them fondly reminisced about their experiences. "I visited Amber Fort," said Mrs. Richa Kumari eagerly, who remembered the famous heritage monument from the film Jodha-Akbar and was mesmerized to see it with her own eyes. She added, "I have purchased a lot of things, especially the quilts, from here."

"I really liked the hospitality of Jaipurites. I have heard a lot about the temples of Jaipur and I'm looking forward to visiting them," said Mr. Shankar Kumar Gupta from Dhanbad, Jharkhand. Dr. Arundhati Naniwe from Jalgaon, Maharashtra, asserted that she loved Kathputlis and would purchase them before leaving. The good things we do for the first time become treasured memories. "I have never been to Jaipur before and I am very happy that I came here. I will always cherish this experience," said Dr. Gayatri Agarwal from Mumbai.

All the delegates had an amazing time exploring the Pink City. The 3 day visit was deemed by many of the delegates to be the journey of a lifetime.

Kajal Jain, Nupur Kedla

Photography Volunteers

Yogita Rajawat
Dimple Sharma
Nikita Rathore
Rama Choudhary
Bhumi Patni
Anchal Nahar

Jinu Abraham
Ankita Das
Anshika
Bhanupriya Saini
Vanshika Bhatia

